Badabon Sangho

Subject of quotation: Production of video documentary `climate change and SRHR`

Background:

Badabon Sangho is a women's rights and women-led organisation. Organisation empowering women through transferring information, skill and know-how. Organisation working with women and girls particularly who are single, divorced, separated and widow.

Ongoing climate changes has been impacting on lives, livelihoods and social structures. However, these issues are not described in a gender responsive ways. Climate change impact on women and girls' are clearly difference than men. Especially the SRHR issues are not described and communicated with the policy actors. As a result the SRHR issues in climate change context are being overlooked by the policy discussion.

Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action (BPfA) is formed and functional to bring out grass root level experience regarding gender discrimination and empowerment. Badabon Sangho is linked with gender equality platform and will document SRHR in climate change context with national and global level advocacy. To make a successful advocacy, team would like to prepare a video documentary on the lives of women fisher-folk communities.
